

Name: _____

Eighth Commandment

True (T) or False (F):

- _____ 1. It is all right to tell a white lie to keep peace in the family.
- _____ 2. Spreading rumors about others is fine as long as it is true.
- _____ 3. According to the eighth commandment, it is all right to tell secrets at any time.
- _____ 4. Sometimes we are obliged to keep a secret.
- _____ 5. Without good reason, it is okay to make known the hidden faults of another.
- _____ 6. It is all right to gossip.
- _____ 7. Telling stories about yourself to make you look better than you are is okay.
- _____ 8. It is permitted to lie to get out of trouble.
- _____ 9. The truth is very important because we need to be able to trust each other.
- _____ 10. Not telling the whole truth is wrong.

Fill in the blanks:

1. We must always _____ the truth.
2. Making known a secret is a sin against the _____ commandment.
3. We should not deliberately make a _____ statement.
4. We should never _____ about others.
5. We should speak the truth about _____ things.
6. When you say something false and damaging about someone's reputation, it is called _____.
7. When you make a written statement that is false and malicious that damages someone's reputation, it is called _____.
8. We need to guard what we say and say what we mean by speaking the _____.
9. It is _____ to talk about someone behind their back.
10. Telling _____ of others is a misuse of friendship and a sin.