

Why did the master call his servants to him? (He was leaving and wanted to give his servants money to keep for him.)	How many talents did the master give his first servant? (5 talents)
How many talents did the master give his second servant? (2 talents)	How many talents did the master give his third servant? (1 talent)
What did the first servant do with the talents? (He doubled it.)	What did the second servant do with the talents? (He doubled it.)
What did the third servant do with the talent? (He buried it in the ground.)	Which servants pleased his master? (The first and second servants.)
Why was the master pleased with the first and second servants? (Because they doubled their money.)	Why was the master not pleased with the third servant? (He had not used his talent.)

What did the master do with the talent from the third servant? (He gave it to the first servant who had ten talents.)	What is a talent? (Weight in precious metal.)
At the very end of the story, how many talents did the first servant have? (11)	Where did the third servant hide his money? (In the ground.)
The servant who received five talents from his master, earned how many more? (5)	The servant who received two talents from his master, earned how many more? (2)
The servant who received one talent from his master, earned how many more? (0)	How many talents did the master give to each of his three servants? (5 to the first servant, 2 to the second, and 1 to the third.)
How many talents did the master give out? (8)	True or False: The master expected results from each man. (True)

True or False: The master expected them each to have the same number of talents when he returned. (False)	True or False: Each man gained something with what he was given. (False)
True or False: The man who received one talent lost it before the master returned. (False)	True or False: The man who received one talent had his talent taken away after the master returned. (True)
What are we supposed to do with the "talents" that God has given us? (We are to use whatever "talent" God has given us. If we use it wisely, He will increase it so our lives will glorify Him.)	Why did the master give each servant a different amount of talents? (It was according to their ability.)
What did the master say to his third servant when he saw what he did with the talent that he had given him? ("You wicked, lazy servant!")	How much is a talent worth? (More than a thousand dollars.)
What did the master say to the first and second servant when he saw what they did with their talents? ("Well done, my good and faithful servant.")	Why did the third servant do what he did with his talent? (He knew that his master was a demanding person and also out of fear.)