

Liturgical Colors

Liturgies celebrated during the different seasons of the liturgical year have distinctive music and specific readings, prayers, and rituals. All of these work together to reflect the spirit of the particular season. The colors of the vestments that the priest wears during the liturgy also help express the character of the mysteries being celebrated.

Below are the six colors in common liturgical use today. Match the colors to the descriptions given.

White Red Violet Green Gold Rose

1. _____ is used on days when we celebrate the passion of Jesus on Passion Sunday and Good Friday. It is also used for the birthday feasts of the apostles and evangelists and for the celebrations of martyrs. This color recalls the Holy Spirit and is used on Pentecost and for the sacrament of Confirmation.
2. _____ is seen everywhere in plants and trees, symbolizes life and hope and is used during Ordinary Time.
3. _____ is the color of joy and victory and it is used for the seasons of Easter and Christmas. It is also used for the feasts of Our Lord, for feasts of Mary, the angels, and for saints who are not martyrs.
4. _____ is used on solemn feasts of Our Lord in place of white.
5. _____ may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent, Gaudete Sunday, and on the Fourth Sunday of Lent, Laetare Sunday. It expresses the joy of anticipation for Christmas and Easter, respectively.
6. _____ is used during Advent to help us to remember that we are preparing for the coming of Christ. Lent, the season of penance and renewal, also uses this color.
