

Responsibility Puppet Show

Mom	Hi my little sugar plum, how was school?
Kid	It was great, Mom! I did all my school work early, so I had time to feed our class guinea pig and I even helped my teacher clean the cage!
Mom	Wow! You were very helpful and responsible today!
Kid	I was helpful and WHAT?
Mom	Helpful and responsible!
Kid	What does res-pon-si-ble mean, Mom?
Mom	It means you can be trusted to do important, helpful things. Like when you make your bed or bring your dirty dishes to the sink after dinner, without being asked to do it.
Kid	I'm being responsible when I do those things?
Mom	Yes! And I'm very proud of you, too!
Kid	Mom, is it responsible when I take my vitamins? That's pretty important.
Mom	Yes, very responsible.
Kid	How about when I brush my teeth?
Mom	Brushing your teeth is being responsible, too.
Kid	Are there any other things I do that are responsible?
Mom	When you are riding your bike, you wear a helmet, right?
Kid	Of course! I've got to keep my brain safe!
Mom	That's being responsible, too!
Kid	Wow, Mom, you're right. I'm a pretty responsible kid!
Mom	Yes, you are. And that's why I've bought you a new pet! Because I know you'll take such good care of her. (use small stuffed animal)
Kid	Oh, Mommy! My own pet! I'm so happy I could run into the street and shout hurray!
Mom	Oh dear!
Kid	But I would NEVER do THAT! Running into the street isn't responsible. So I'll just say it right here! Hurray!!!!!!! (dog barks happily as they both jump up and down, celebrate and kiss puppy)
