

The Cross Puppet Show

(Gal: 6:14) "May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world."

Kelly	(Marching) Hup two three four, hup two three four!
Mark	What on earth are you doing?
Kelly	Marching, silly.
Mark	I can see that. Why are you marching?
Kelly	I'm a soldier in the army of the Lord!
Mark	What's that in your hand? A big X?
Kelly	Nope. The Cross of Jesus Christ!
Mark	Why are you carrying that?
Kelly	Because I'm proud of it.
Mark	How can you be proud of a Cross?
Kelly	Because it reminds me of Jesus' sacrifice that saved me from all my sins. It reminds me that love is the most important thing of all. Jesus is my hero!
Mark	Yeah, well, my hero is a ball player. A-Rod! A-Rod! Goooooo A-Rod!
Kelly	Your hero is a ball player ?
Mark	You bet. That guy makes a ton of money and he's FAMOUS.
Kelly	Has he ever taught anyone about God's love?
Mark	I don't know.
Kelly	Has he ever cured any sick people, like Jesus did?
Mark	Nah. Just hits a ball with a bat. Really hard, though.
Kelly	Has he ever raised anyone from the dead?
Mark	Of course not. He's just an – ordinary human.
Kelly	Has he ever sacrificed himself to save the WHOLE WORLD?
Mark	Okay, I get your point. Jesus is the definitely best hero in the whole universe. But what good is all this marching?
Kelly	It makes me feel happy. It reminds me of God's power surrounding me and protecting me.

Mark	Cool.
Kelly	And it's a great conversation starter.
Mark	(laughs) True enough. You scored with that one, kid.
Kelly	Home run, actually.
	(they laugh)
Mark	Can I march with you?
Kelly	Sure, come on! Hup to three four, hup to three four! (they exit)

The End
